THE HESSIAN FLY

IS DOING GREAT DAMAGE TO WHEAT IN COUNTY.

REPORT FROM CAMERON

Some Fields Totally Destroyed—Alfalfa Best Crop to Put in When Wheat is Destroyed.

The Hessian fly is destroying the wheat crops of Nodaway county, according to a statement given out by Prof. John Cameron of the State Normal school. A trip was made over the east part of the county Thursday and several wheat fields were inspected. Those in the party were Prof. John Cameron, George L. Wilfley, president of the Farmers Trust company; Ray S. Wilfley of Cherokee, Okla., and H. F. Leet.

John E. Cameron, head of the department of biology and agriculture of the Northwest Normal school, writes the following:

Thursday afternoon George L. Wilfley asked me to accompany a party of business men over a portion of the east part of the county to investigate the extent of the damage done in the wheat by the Hessian fly. The party followed the state road east to Ravenwood, north to Parnell and back to Maryville, past Orrsburg and Harmony church.

The first field visited was on Dr. F. M. Martin's farm, on the state road, east of Maryville. It was alive with the fly, but not so bad as the next field beyond. That field will be entirely destroyed before harvest time. There was but a single field this side of Ravenwood that looked in excellent condition, while a majority of the fields on that road if not seeded to clover or alfalfa in the wheat might just as well be put into another crop. Over the rest of the trip, while not so much in evidence, the fly was found more or less in every field examined, but with good growing weather a good crop may be produced.

Immediately upon returning home, Jacob Melvin telephoned me that his wheat, two miles south of town, was badly injured, and soon after D. D. Davis brought to my home samples of badly affected wheat, and reported that of the 125 acres on the farm, six miles south of town, all was more or less affected, while samples sent in from west of Pickering and near Hopkins show to some extent the territory covered by the Hessian fly in this county.

The farmer whose wheat is affected is asking these questions: "Will it pay to let the wheat stand?" "If I plow it up what crop shall I put in?" In answering the first question it is necessary to determine to what extent the damage is being done, and I would be glad to visit the field if it is convenient to have me do so. During school days my class work keeps me at the building from 8:30 to 3. Any other time is at the service of the community.

If the wheat field looks ragged or uneven, some plants shorter than others, and the color not a uniform rich dark green, it probably will not pay to let it stand, especially if on examination the lower joints show a large number of little white maggots about as thick as a pin and from one-sixteenth to one-eighth of an inch in length. Of the four stages in the life of an insect this is known as the larva stage—the stage when the damage is done to the wheat crop. In a short time all the maggots will turn brown and so remain for a few days, then from this little brown "flaxseed" case will emerge the little gnat to lay eggs by the hundred on the same wheat plant. This time when the eggs hatch the little larva will bore into the joints of what stalks are left, and when the wheat ripens the stalk will break over, the head rest on the ground and so cannot be harvested.

But what becomes of the maggot or larva in the ripening joints of the grain? They pass into the resting or brown "flaxseed" stage and remain on the stubble until the volunteer wheat comes or early wheat which has been sown. Then the fly or gnat emerges, the eggs are laid and the young larva or maggot begins its work of destruction of the next year's wheat crop. The winter is passed in the "flaxseed" or pupa stage, early spring brings out another brood of flies and the destructive work goes on as long as wheat is raised in the country.

New, as to the other question, what crop to raise if the field is not already plowed up and planted to corn. It is not too late to put in corn, but the ground should be double disked before plowing, then what wheat is left should be turned under as green mannure. If there is a shortage of hay or pasture the ideal crop to grow is cowpeas or soybeans. These can be drilled in with an ordinary grain drill at the rate of a bushel per acre. Whip-poor-will cowpeas should be planted, not the New Era at this time of the year. They make a splendid pasture during August and September, when blue grass pastures are usually short.

Alfalfa is the crop to put in where the Hessian fly has badly injured the wheat. There will be no returns this year, but one crop can be lost for the greater returns that will come later. The ground should be double disked and the wheat plowed under as soon as possible to destroy the larva now on the wheat. It should be disked a time or two during the summer to kill the weeds, then about the middle or last of July, after working the soil as fine as possible to secure a well packed seed-bed, sow about ten or twelve pounds of seed to the acre. Splendid seed can be secured now at from $8 to $10 a bushel. Nodaway county is in the greatest alfalfa region in the world, but we do not know it, because we have not been growing that crop. Go with me to the alfalfa fields on the Normal grounds, or to the alfalfa covered hills on Elmer Frazer's farm, east of the 102 river, and I can prove it to you. It is a little hard to get a stand because we have removed the organic matter in the form of humus from the soil. Return it to the soil by plowing under a crop of green stuff, such as wheat, in badly infected sections, manure the thinnest ground, add a little lime to some soils, and there will soon be a paying crop equaling or exceeding the famous Nodaway county corn crop.

DRAINAGE BOARD MET.

Directors of District No. 2 in Session at Burlington Junction Thursday.

The board of directors of Nodaway drainage district No. 2 met in the Northwestern bank at Burlington Junction Thursday. The board is composed of W. M. Blackford, president; Guy C. Clark, secretary; James S. Coker, J. W. Smith and William Carter. Lon Monk, collector of Nodaway township, Fred Wright, collector of Green township, and Calvin Burch, collector of Atchison township, met with the board and made their settlements of the drainage tax.

The matter of repairing the dam on the Walker farm and deepening the ditch was taken up and discussed, and it is probable that some work will be done on this part of the ditch right away. The dam which was constructed on the Walker farm last year is in good shape and has not been damaged by the high waters, but the river has cut out the bank on the north side of the dam, and it has made a channel about twelve feet wide. It has been suggested that several loads of rocks be placed in this opening to turn the stream in the ditch again. It is also probable that the bed of the ditch in the Carpenter bend will be lowered below the dam. It is thought that by digging a ditch three feet deep and of about the same width of the bed would be lowered sufficiently for the water to follow this course. These matters will be taken up by the board a little later. The board will hold its annual election of officers during the latter part of July.

ELROY V. SELLECK

AN ERSTWHILE RESIDENT OF MARYVILLE HAS BEEN

ARRESTED IN ST. LOUIS

Is Charged With Embezzlement and Obtaining Money on False Pretenses.

Elroy V. Selleck, a former Maryville young man, now an attorney at St. Louis, was arrested recently on bench warrants following the voting of indictments charging him with embezzlement and obtaining money under false pretenses. He gave bond for $1,000.

Selleck went to St. Louis about eighteen years ago. He attended the public schools and is well known by many people here. His father was a painter and paper hanger. He has a brother, Jerome Selleck, who went to St. Louis with him.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Sunday has the following about Selleck's arrest:

Circuit Attorney Harvey Saturday said the indictments on which Selleck was arrested were being prepared for formal presentation in court.

One of the indictments charges that Selleck obtained $4,000 in deed of trust notes from a client and agreed to erect a house as payment for the notes. It was stipulated that the house, when turned over to the client, should be free of incumbrance.

The indictment alleges that when the house was turned over to the client there were mechanics' liens against it, constituting an incumbrance, and that Selleck, in failing to satisfy these liens placed himself in the position of obtaining money by false pretenses.

In the other indictment it was charged that Selleck obtained $4,000 worth of stocks from a widow, in connection with probate court proceedings, and failed to make an accounting to his client.

An effort was made to disbar Selleck in 1912. After a commission appointed by the court of appeals had recommended that he be disbarred, the supreme court of Missouri set aside the commission's finding and ordered that Selleck be permitted to continue practicing law.

Selleck said the house mentioned in one of the indictments was built for Rudolph Kink and that it was necessary to leave it encumbered with mechanics' liens because the $4,000 deed of trust given by Link was not sufficient to pay for the work. He said that Link had lost nothing through the deal.

"William J. Hogan, president of the Great Western Construction Co., which built the house, left town two weeks ago and I do not know where he is," said Selleck. I am secretary of the construction company and in that capacity I signed the papers in the transaction with Link, but I did nothing wrong."

Selleck said he knew nothing of the transaction in which he is alleged to have obtained $4,000 worth of securities belonging to a widow.

TWO FOR COUNTY CLERK.

Frank Bolin and Fred Yeomans Are Candidates for This Office.

There are two candidates for the nomination for county clerk. Fred J. Yeomans filed for the office April 22 and Frank Bolin filed May 5.

Frank Bolin was born and reared in White Cloud township and is 42 years old. He has been a resident of Nodaway county all his life. He was the Democratic nominee for sheriff in 1904 and was defeated by a small majority. He was a candidate for the nomination for collector of Polk township and was defeated in the convention by Felix Grundy by a few votes. He urged his supporters to vote for Grundy and help elect him. This act is characteristic of his Democracy. Mr. Bolin stands foremost among our citizens. He came from a family of Democrats and would make a good race for the office he seeks. Should he be nominated and elected he would make a most efficient officer.

Runaway at Hopkins.

A team belonging to Mell Foster of Hopkins became frightened at an automobile this morning in Hopkins, while Ernest Foster, his mother and daughter were returning to their home, east of Hopkins. The team ran a short distance, overturning the buggy and throwing the occupants out. Mrs. Foster sustained a sprained wrist and an injured side, while the others were only slightly shaken up.

NO CHARGES AGAINST GUNN.

Prosecuting Attorney Says No Steps to Be Taken Until Investigation Is Finished.

No charges have been preferred against Roy Gunn of Burlington Junction, who caused the death of L. W. Huddle in a fight last Sunday at Burlington Junction. Prosecuting Attorney Wright announced Friday that steps will be taken to bring charges against Gunn as soon as the investigation is finished. Mr. Wright, accompanied by Sheriff Ed Wallace, was in Burlington Junction Thursday gathering evidence in the case.

Noah Huddle, father of the dead man, and E. W. Williams of Shambaugh, Ia., and Frank McMackin of Burlington Junction were in Maryville Friday morning and were in conference with Mr. Wright.

Gunn is in the county jail and refuses to make any statement on the case.

PLAY TWO GAMES.

Tarkio College This Afternoon and Amity College Saturday.

The Normal school base ball team left this morning on a two days trip to Tarkio college and Amity college. The team will play Tarkio college today, and will try to avenge the defeat which they suffered at the hands of the Tarkio players a week ago. The team plays at Amity, Ia., on Saturday and are confident of bringing home another victory over the Amity college team. The men who made the trip were Leavel, Bird, McKee, Noblett, Dyer, Ham, Adams, Brittain, Miller, Richards and Long. Coach Eek accompanied the team. The Democrat-Forum will receive the results of both games immediately after the game and will be glad to answer all phone calls at the office.

First Band Concert of Season.

The first band concert of the season was given Thursday night by the Maryville Concert band. There was a large crowd of people present and they showed their appreciation of the fact that the concerts are to be given again this year by Director T. B. Maulding and the band. An excellent program of music was given, all of which was well rendered. The concerts will be given on every Thursday night in the band stand in the court house yard, the weather permitting.

Won Case at Gallatin.

The suit of John M. Dinsmore and Grover Dinsmore vs. G. W. Shell, which was sent from the Nodaway circuit court to the Davies county circuit court at Gallatin, terminated with a verdict for the plaintiffs. The suit was on a contract and was for $1,000, and the verdict was for the full amount. Wright & Ford were the attorneys for Dinsmore. Mr. Shell was represented by Boyce Miller of Grant City and J. L. Sheldon of Ottawa, Kan. G. W. Shell lives at Ottawa.

Barnard Citizen Routed Mexicans.

A gang of Mexicans who are temporarily located at Barnard, where they are employed by the Burlington railroad, were put to flight early Sunday night when Jim Wyatt opened fire on the foreigners at that place with a seven-shooter. The Mexicans were housed in their car when the shooting began, but ere the battle was over all had fled except one, who took refuge under his bunk. Seven shots were fired into the box car.

Just what prompted young Wyatt to open fire on the foreigners has not been learned, but it is thought that true Americanism begun to overflow when he caught sight of the nationality that is today causing Uncle Sam no end of trouble. Wyatt has been placed under arrest.

War on Berry Boxes.

A campaign against the use of berry boxes with false bottoms has been inaugurated by the state food and drug department. Announcement is made by John P. Leahy, attorney for the departments, and asks housewives throughout the state to help the officials apprehend peddlers and large dealers who persist in misrepresenting the quantity of berries by the use of short boxes.

Boxes with false bottoms, Mr. Leahy said, contain 20 per cent less than the outer appearance would indicate. According to Leahy, State Food Inspector Fricke has notified berry shippers throughout Missouri that prosecutions would follow attempts to sell berries in boxes with raised bottoms as containing full pints or quarts when in reality they contain less.

Mrs. J. H. Mounts of Chicago and Mrs. J. Louis Diss of Lincoln, Neb., arrived Thursday night and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stapler.

F. E. DAY'S ADDRESS

ATTENDED BY 175 MEN AT BROTHERHOOD MEETING.

TALK ON BROTHERHOOD

Object of Same is to Bring the Outcast and Down-Trodden to View the Church Correctly.

About 175 men attended the address given by the Rev. Frank E. Day of the White Temple of St. Joseph, at a meeting of the Brotherhood of the First M. E. church last night. Delegations of thirty-three of the M. E. church brotherhood at Pickering, two from Myrtle Tree and about thirty from the Buchanan Street Methodist church of this city, came en masse. The remainder of the audience was composed of the M. E. Brotherhood and a few from the Christian and Baptist churches of the city.

In his introductory remarks Rev. Day attributed the election of Mayor Marshall of St. Joseph to the influence of the various brotherhoods of that city. He incidentally remarked that if such organizations could have such influence in a city like St. Joseph, what untold good might they do in other towns and cities. This statement was humorously received and roundly applauded.

In taking up his talk of the evening he traced clearly and minutely the growth of the brotherhood in the church. He stated that the first Apostolic church was dominated by the Bass Voice, having reference to the affairs of the church being controlled by men. This domination gradually waned until the nineteenth century, when the Soprano Voice (women) was in the ascendency in the affairs of the church in every department except the official board, and even that body was seeking some way of shifting its responsibilities to the Ladies' Aid society. Such was the state of affairs in the history of the nineteenth century church that some of the sainted men were led to remark that the reason marriage was abolished in heaven was due to the fact that there would not be enough men to go around.

The Bass Voice element of the twentieth century is taking the place of the nineteenth century Soprano Voice, and the church is appealing to men of intelligence and influence, through the agency of the social element advocated by the present day brotherhood. These brotherhoods are essentially social in nature to be of the greatest opportunity; if they lack in the social nature and are of the prayer meeting type, they are a calamity. These brotherhoods are not a new organization, but an old organization with more power through a neglected source. The brotherhood should and is seeking a more manly relation between the man in the church and the man on the outside of the church. Its duty is to make the man on the one side understand that the man on the other side is the same sort of a human. The brotherhood is not seeking the particular individual but type of men, the man who feels that there is naught of good in the world, that the church is his enemy. What it must seek to do is to bring the outcast and down-trodden to view the church in the light of a brother and helper and direct the wanderer's step and gaze to Him who is Master of all.

About eighty-eight remained for the banquet, which was served in the parlors of the church. William Hall, president, and Callie C. Harmon, vice president of the Brotherhood at Pickering; Rev. W. E. Killion, pastor of the Christian church, and Rev. S. T. Stillman, pastor of the M. E. church, of Pickering, and Ernest Wray of Myrtle Tree gave short addresses. Rev. Gilbert R. Cox was toastmaster.

Clean, Wholesome Milk.

In recent years many experiments have been made in trying to purify milk by straining it through cotton, quartz, sand and the like, in endeavoring to remove sediment and other objectionable matter. No method, process or machine had ever been discovered that would satisfactorily accomplish this result until the invention and perfection of the DeLaval centrifugal milk clarifier. The objection to many of the other processes is that they only tend to dissolve the impurities and emulsify them with the milk. The De-Laval process of milk clarification does not involve the heating of the milk, the use of chemicals or other outside agents. It is a scientific application of centrifugal force. The milk is run through a bowl which revolves at the rate of several thousand revolutions per minute, thus subjecting the milk to a high centrifugal force, and which high speed displaces and lodges in the sediment pockets provided for the purpose, all the sediment and contamination contained in the milk, which is heavier than the milk. The milk is discharged from the machine in identically the same state as which it entered, with no physical or chemical change whatever, except that it is fresh from the objectionable matter and thus rendered clean and wholesome. Dr. Charles E. North of New York City, sanitary expert for the International Milk Dealers' association and recognized everywhere as a leading authority on clean milk, said, in a recent report: "The new centrifugal clarifier does not separate the cream from the milk. It takes out the slimes, and a study of the composition of that slime reveals new terrors, even in the best milk. You have not studied certified milk until you have examined the slime thrown out of even the best forms of certified milk by the clarifier.
Those who doubt the benefit of clarification will be converted if they only examine the slimes that are taken out of even the best raw milk."

in building the new bridges and culverts. There are several good sand

FOR CHRONIC COUGHS

Milton, Pa., Woman Has Found a Remedy.

Mrs. Howard Wagner of Milton, Pa., says: "I had a bad cold for months, and would cough every night until midnight. I consulted a doctor and took two kinds of medicine but got no relief. Vinol was recommended, and after taking it a week I could sleep all night without coughing once. I continued its use and now have a fine appetite, never felt better and my cough is entirely gone."

It is a well known fact that when a person is run down, stomach out of order, or the system overloaded with waste matter, vital resistance is lowered and colds and coughs are easily contracted.

The safest and surest method we know to overcome this condition is by taking our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. In the most natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, promotes a hearty appetite, enriches the blood, and as a specific for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles Vinol is unexcelled.

Try a bottle of Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to help you. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Mary-spent in gathering May apple blossoms and other wild flowers.

Mrs. Herren was assisted by Miss
Jones and Miss Elizabeth Turner.
Sixty guests were entertained.

Obituary.

Clara F. Jones was born in Waukesha county, Wisconsin, November 13, 1839. She was united in marriage to John A. Stewart November 8, 1866. Lived in Wisconsin until 1870, when they moved to Hopkins, where they lived until 1890, when they moved to Parnell, living there seventeen years, when again they went to make their home near her niece, Mrs. H. W. Hull. After two years she was deprived of her husband by the hand of death, and after this made her home with her niece, where she lived until she was called to her reward.

Her life was quiet and peaceful, filled with loving deeds quietly done. Wherever sickness was or need she was willing to assist, and her presence brought sunshine. She was one of the charter members of the Presbyterian church at Hopkins, where she remained a member until her death. Her faith in God was perfect and no work of the church was complete without her. Hers was an every-day Christian life, doing the work of the Master faithfully and trustingly.

She was sick about six weeks with a complication of diseases. She was able to be down but little during that time, resting as best she could in a chair. She was talking of her husband when the weakened heart suddenly stopped and the hand that had so gently led her along the path of life conducted her across the dark stream to which we could see she was going, leaving us standing so close to its flowing water.

A short service was conducted by Rev. Hale at the home of H. W. Hull Thursday morning. A quartet consisting of Mrs. Alpha Bishop, Miss Nellie Douglas, Orlo Quinn and Hal Catterson sang "It is Well With My Soul" and "Abide With Me," and a solo, "Shepherd Divine," was given by Mr. Catterson.

The remains were taken to her old home and church at Hopkins, where the funeral services were conducted by the pastor. Remarks were appropriately made by W. K. Adams, an intimate friend of the family from St. Joseph. Her body was laid to rest beside the family, a husband, who preceded her more than five years ago, and three children, who died in infancy. Many were the floral tributes and expressions of love from a host of friends who, in their hearts, chorus the admittance "Well done, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

German Specialist Here.

Dr. Heinrich Holke, the German specialist, will be in Maryville for three months, during May, June and July. The doctor claims to have treated over six thousand cases in the last twenty-five years and to have extensive hospital experience. He speaks English, German, French and Italian.

George and Clarence Holbrook of Clearmont were transacting business in this city Wednesday.

Don't miss seeing the opening play of Angell's Comedians in the big tent next Monday night.

In Missouri.

Total value of Missouri farm crops for 1913 is $175,787,126. In this estimate only field crops and vegetables are included.

Missouri has become one of the greatest, perhaps the greatest, of blue-grass states. The annual grazing value of the crop has been estimated at from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000.

Missouri has a flag and it will wave over London, August 17, for that date has been set aside for Missouri day at the Anglo-American exposition, which will open shortly and continue until October.

Missouri counted its cash at the close of business April 30, and there was found to be $7,538,429.52 in the treasury. This was in excess of any balance ever held before to the extent of more than $269,000.

It is a safe prediction that Missouri will soon be at the head of agricultural states. According to the 1910 census returns it ranks sixth in the value of farm products and fifth in the value of all farm property.

Every state has its society of Washington at the national capital but the greatest of them all is that of Missouri. The annual picnic of the Missouri society of Washington will be held at Great Falls on the Potomac river on July 11.

Missouri's state university is growing old. The seventy-fifth anniversary of its founding will be celebrated on June 5. While it has been growing old it has also been growing better and is now acknowledged as one of the greatest educational institutions in the country.

The tale is well and wonderfully told in these few short sentences by W. L. Nelson, assistant secretary of the Missouri state board of agriculture: "Missouri is a state of wonderfully diversified crops. No other state grows so many crops so well. Nowhere are the returns from labor in agricultural pursuits more certain."

WILCOX ITEMS.

Mrs. S. A. Hefflin was called to Barnard Friday on account of the illness of her brother's little son.

Mrs. Ed Hartsough of St. Joseph is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hainline.

Rev. M. DeWitt filled his usual appointment at Wilcox Sunday.

Miss Dora Smith, who has been teaching school near Sheridan, is home for the summer vacation. She has been re-employed to teach the same school at a salary of $50 per month.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shell, Monday morning, a little daughter. Mrs. Shell was Miss Clara Kinney.

Miss Mae Davis has been re-employed to teach the Wilcox school for the coming year.

The many friends of little Nellie Hall will be glad to learn that she is recovering nicely from the serious operation she underwent some time ago at St. Francis hospital. If nothing more arises she will be brought to her home this week.

With tear bedimmed eye we read of the death of Miss Marcia Messenger. How sad to think that nevermore, when alighting from the train, will we see that accustomed face. We think it can truthfully be said that "None knew her but to love her," for no stranger could look into her face without feeling that she was their friend. We do not know or understand why she could not have been spared, but with an aching heart we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

Manning Store in Operation.

The Manning store at Skidmore, which was sold last Friday to the Wheeler-Motter Dry Goods company of St. Joseph, is now in charge of U. G. Haynes of St. Joseph. The store will be continued and restocked and brought up to date. Mr. Haynes is a practical and experienced business man, and says that Skidmore is a most desirable location for an up-to-date store of this kind.

To Serve Meals.

The ladies of Mt. Zion Baptist church will serve dinner and supper Saturday at the Borrusch building, on West Third street.

THE ANGELLS ARE HERE.

Angell's Comedians, the company that closed their tenting season here last fall and gave such universal satisfaction, will open their tenting season here in Maryville next Monday night in "Every Woman's Husband." This play is claimed by the manager to have never been seen before outside of $1.00 and $1.50 prices. The story of this play ran in the Saturday Evening Post a few months ago. The company this year is much stronger than last season, and Mr. Haderman, the manager, says they will present a line of plays that have never been seen before in this city at popular prices, and a cast that will surprise the show going public. The company have been rehearsing here for the past week. The music will be a big feature with this company same as in the past, and the public can be assured of hearing the late and popular music as well as the descriptive.

LOAD OF STRIKE BREAKERS HALTED

Twenty-Five Miners Imported into Zone Stopped by Troops.

Trinidad, Colo., May 15.—Twenty-five miners imported into the strike region by the Oakdale Coal company to work in the Oakdale mine, near Laveta, were stopped by United States regulars under Captain C. C. Smith. Five men were held by Captain Cushman at Primero, a Colorado Fuel and Iron company property, on the ground that they were employed by the company in violation of the order of Colonel James Lockett against the importation of strikebreakers. None of the men were arrested or deported. The two commanders received orders from military headquarters simply to prevent them from going to work in the mines.

The detention of the thirty miners, together with the notice sent out by Colonel Lockett earlier in the day, warning the coal companies against the importation of men, brought the employment of strikebreakers into first place among the problems connected with the strike.

Attorneys for the Oakdale company called up Colonel Lockett's headquarters and asked for an interview. They were told that they might plead their cause before Colonel Lockett today, but that the orders from the secretary of war were explicit against permitting strikebreakers to be imported.

The developments of the day caused the issuance of a statement of policy by the military authorities. Unless further orders are received from Washington the attitude of the army toward the employment of miners is summed up as follows:

Men brought into the district by the coal companies will not be allowed to work in the mines.

Men who come voluntarily seeking employment will be permitted to work.

At the same time the military authorities announced that picketing of railroad stations by strikers will not be tolerated.

MELLEN BARES
HAVEN METHOD

Gives Details of Deal in Taking
Over Subsidiaries.

HE SPEAKS WITH FRANKNESS.

Was Ready to Deal "With Devil or Anybody Else" in the Transaction. Tells How New Haven Stock Was Exchanged for Westchester Shares.

Washington, May 15.—Former President Charles S. Mellen of the New Haven road disclosed to the interstate commerce commission the financial methods of the New Haven in the acquisition of subsidiaries, particularly the New York, Westchester and Boston road.

Mr. Mellen's testimony had scarcely begun when an adjournment was taken until next Tuesday.

Mr. Mellen, with apparent frankness, told of his negotiations with former Police Inspector Thomas F. Byrnes of New York for the exchange of 8,000 New Haven shares for 24,000 shares of Westchester stock, because he thought that Byrnes had influence with people who "it was necessary to reach." Mr. Mellen bluntly said he would have been willing to deal with the "devil or anybody else" in the transaction.

In the course of the examination Mr. Folk asked:

"When you became president of the New Haven, what was the policy of the directors in obtaining securities of trolley roads and steamship companies?"

In Accord With Policy.

"They were getting control of such holdings. I was in accord with this policy."

Mr. Folk took up the acquisition of the Westchester road by the New Haven, and Mr. Mellen said: "As I recall the details, 8,000 shares of the New Haven were put in my hands in escrow to be exchanged for 24,000 shares of the Westchester stock as soon as matters in connection with the franchise of the Westchester road were settled."

The value at that time of the 8,000 shares of New Haven was $1,200,000.

"With whom did you deal in regard to the exchange of stock?" asked Mr. Folk.

"Former Police Inspector Thomas F. Byrnes."

"What was your idea in regard to Mr. Byrnes arranging all this?"

Had Suspicion.

Mr. Mellen said that power to grant the franchise of the Westchester road was in the hands of the board of estimates of New York city, and continued:

"When I was carrying on this transaction through Mr. Byrnes, I had a hunch he could reach people of influence in regard to having the changes made in the proposed charter. I wanted to reach the people it was necessary to reach. I wanted to reach the devil or anybody else who could amend the charter."

"Were the arrangements for the exchange of securities made in writing?"

"No, I was willing to sign an agreement, but the other party was not."

Asked as to the names that appeared on Westchester shares as holders of stock, Mr. Mellen said: "The shares apparently were made out in the names of clerks and others."

Mr. Mellen said he believed an "attempt was made to conceal the owners of the stock."

"It is my suspicion," he added, "the shares were issued to contractors, who then placed them where they would do the most good."

Paris, May 15.—The Duchess de Talleyrand, formerly Anna Gould of New York, announces that, having successfully defended the suit brought by creditors of her first husband, Comte Boni de Castellane, for possession of her Paris house, and having refuted, through the medium of her Roman lawyer, the calumnies reported about her by the Castellane family and Count Boni's friends, she has decided to withdraw her opposition to the annulment of her first marriage.

"BALD JACK'S STORY

Webber Tells of Part He Played
in Murder Plot.

New York, May 15.—"Bald Jack" Rose and his fellow conspirator, "Bridge" Webber, occupied the witness stand during the forenoon session at the second trial of Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal. The state called Rose in direct examination reinforcing parts of his story that the defense had attacked. When he left the stand it was the general opinion that his narrative in the main had not been shaken.

Webber was then called by the prosecution to tell of the part he played in the murder plot and of the gathering of the four gunmen, now all dead, at his poker rooms.

BRISTOW AND ASHURST TILT

Arizona Senator Calls Kansas a Falsifier.

Washington, May 15.—Prairie dogs stirred up more trouble in the senate than tariff, currency, tolls or woman suffrage has done in the entire session. Before the flurry was over, one senator had denounced another as a "falsifier" and Democrats had been accused of converting the party's economy pledges into a satire.

It all came about by Senator Ashurst being absent from the senate when it agreed to a $125,000 item in the agricultural appropriation bill for investigating noxious farm animals. He asked for a reconsideration so he might insert a $5,000 increase for the investigation into the methods of exterminating the prairie dogs, which, he said, had uprooted whole townships in Arizona.

Senator Bristow remarked that an appropriation for the extermination of prairie dogs was the most assinine thing he had ever heard of, because every farmer knows how to get rid of them.

"I am not in favor of calling out the army and navy to exterminate the prairie dog," Senator Bristow said. "This thing looks to me like a strained effort to get an appropriation to give somebody some jobs."

"No one would make that statement whose brains were not at the base of his tongue instead of in his head," shouted Senator Ashurst, as he advanced across the chamber toward the Kansas senator. "Any senator who says I am seeking to get some jobs by this item state what is false and knows he is a falsifier."

The roll call on reconsideration cut short the debate. Reconsideration was defeated by a tie vote of 26 to 26, but the debate over the prairie dog was not over. Senator Reed took the floor to denounce the bill, declaring many items in it were utterly unjustifiable and that the talk of economy had been converted into a satire.

Returning Refugees Tell of Outrages.

Eagle Pass, Tex., May 15.—Refugees arriving here from Saltillo and Guadalajara brought reports of outrages on Americans. Wholesale destruction of American property was reported in Guadalajara. It was said that stores had been looted and homes stripped of furniture. Several Americans were reported beaten. One American who arrived from Guadalajara, where for years he had been in business, said all Americans were herded together and ordered to leave the city at once.

Huerta Peace Envoys in For's Country

Key West, Fla., May 15.—The three peace commissioners, Emilio Rabasa, Augustin Rodriguez and Luis Elguero, appointed by President Huerta to represent his government at the mediation conference at Niagara Falls, Canada, arrived here from Havana on the steamer Miami. Within an hour after the party docked they were on the way northward on a train which had been held for their arrival.

NO. 297.

THE HESSIAN FLY

IS DOING GREAT DAMAGE TO WHEAT IN COUNTY.

REPORT FROM CAMERON

Some Fields Totally Destroyed—Alfalfa Best Crop to Put in When Wheat is Destroyed.

The Hessian fly is destroying the wheat crops of Nodaway county, according to a statement given out by Prof. John Cameron of the State Normal school. A trip was made over the east part of the county Thursday and several wheat fields were inspected. Those in the party were Prof. John Cameron, George L. Wilfley, president of the Farmers Trust company; Ray S. Wilfley of Cherokee, Okla., and H. F. Leet.

John E. Cameron, head of the department of biology and agriculture of the Northwest Normal school, writes the following:

Thursday afternoon George L. Wilfley asked me to accompany a party of business men over a portion of the east part of the county to investigate the extent of the damage done in the wheat by the Hessian fly. The party followed the state road east to Ravenwood, north to Parnell and back to Maryville, past Orrsburg and Harmony church.

The first field visited was on Dr. F. M. Martin's farm, on the state road, east of Maryville. It was alive with the fly, but not so bad as the next field beyond. That field will be entirely destroyed before harvest time. There was but a single field this side of Ravenwood that looked in excellent condition, while a majority of the fields on that road if not seeded to clover or alfalfa in the wheat might just as well be put into another crop. Over the rest of the trip, while not so much in evidence, the fly was found more or less in every field examined, but with good growing weather a good crop may be produced.

Immediately upon returning home, Jacob Melvin telephoned me that his wheat, two miles south of town, was badly injured, and soon after D. D. Davis brought to my home samples of badly affected wheat, and reported that of the 125 acres on the farm, six miles south of town, all was more or less affected, while samples sent in from west of Pickering and near Hopkins show to some extent the territory covered by the Hessian fly in this county.

The farmer whose wheat is affected is asking these questions: "Will it pay to let the wheat stand?" "If I plow it up what crop shall I put in?" In answering the first question it is necessary to determine to what extent the damage is being done, and I would be glad to visit the field if it is convenient to have me do so. During school days my class work keeps me at the building from 8:30 to 3. Any other time is at the service of the community.

If the wheat field looks ragged or uneven, some plants shorter than others, and the color not a uniform rich dark green, it probably will not pay to let it stand, especially if on examination the lower joints show a large number of little white maggots about as thick as a pin and from one-sixteenth to one-eighth of an inch in length. Of the four stages in the life of an insect this is known as the larva stage—the stage when the damage is done to the wheat crop. In a short time all the maggots will turn brown and so remain for a few days, then from this little brown "flaxseed" case will emerge the little gnat to lay eggs by the hundred on the same wheat plant. This time when the eggs hatch the little larva will bore into the joints of what stalks are left, and when the wheat ripens the stalk will break over, the head rest on the ground and so cannot be harvested.

But what becomes of the maggot or larva in the ripening joints of the grain? They pass into the resting or brown "flaxseed" stage and remain on the stubble until the volunteer wheat comes or early wheat which has been sown. Then the fly or gnat emerges, the eggs are laid and the young larva or maggot begins its work of destruction of the next year's wheat crop. The winter is passed in the "flaxseed" or pupa stage, early spring brings out another brood of flies and the destructive work goes on as long as wheat is raised in the country.

Now, as to the other question, what crop to raise if the field is not already plowed up and planted to corn. It is not too late to put in corn, but the ground should be double disked before plowing, then what wheat is left should be turned under as green manure. If there is a shortage of hay or pasture the ideal crop to grow is cowpeas or soybeans. These can be drilled in with an ordinary grain drill at the rate of a bushel per acre. Whip-poor-will cowpeas should be planted, not the New Era at this time of the year. They make a splendid pasture during August and September, when blue grass pastures are usually short.

Alfalfa is the crop to put in where the Hessian fly has badly injured the wheat. There will be no returns this year, but one crop can be lost for the greater returns that will come later. The ground should be double disked and the wheat plowed under as soon as possible to destroy the larva now on the wheat. It should be disked a time or two during the summer to kill the weeds, then about the middle or last of July, after working the soil as fine as possible to secure a well packed seed-bed, sow about ten or twelve pounds of seed to the acre. Splendid seed can be secured now at from $8 to $10 a bushel. Nodaway county is in the greatest alfalfa region in the world, but we do not know it, because we have not been growing that crop. Go with me to the alfalfa fields on the Normal grounds, or to the alfalfa covered hills on Elmer Frazer's farm, east of the 102 river, and I can prove it to you. It is a little hard to get a stand because we have removed the organic matter in the form of humus from the soil. Return it to the soil by plowing under a crop of green stuff, such as wheat, in badly infected sections, manure the thinnest ground, add a little lime to some soils, and there will soon be a paying crop equaling or exceeding the famous Nodaway county corn crop.

DRAINAGE BOARD MET.

Directors of District No. 2 in Session at Burlington Junction Thursday.

The board of directors of Nodaway drainage district No. 2 met in the Northwestern bank at Burlington Junction Thursday. The board is composed of W. M. Blackford, president; Guy C. Clark, secretary; James S. Corken, J. W. Smith and William Carter. Lon Monk, collector of Nodaway township, Fred Wright, collector of Green township, and Calvin Burch, collector of Atchison township, met with the board and made their settlements of the drainage tax.

The matter of repairing the dam on the Walker farm and deepening the ditch was taken up and discussed, and it is probable that some work will be done on this part of the ditch right away. The dam which was constructed on the Walker farm last year is in good shape and has not been damaged by the high waters, but the river has cut out the bank on the north side of the dam, and it has made a channel about twelve feet wide. It has been suggested that several loads of rocks be placed in this opening to turn the stream in the ditch again. It is also probable that the bed of the ditch in the Carpenter bend will be lowered below the dam. It is thought that by digging a ditch three feet deep and of about the same width of the bed would be lowered sufficiently for the water to follow this course. These matters will be taken up by the board a little later. The board will hold its annual election of officers during the latter part of July.

ELROY V. SELLECK TO GET DIPLOMAS

AN ERSTWHILE RESIDENT OF MARYVILLE HAS BEEN

ARRESTED IN ST. LOUIS AT EMPIRE THEATRE

Is Charged With Embezzlement and Obtaining Money on False Pretenses.

Elroy V. Selleck, a former Maryville young man, now an attorney at St. Louis, was arrested recently on bench warrants following the voting of indictments charging him with embezzlement and obtaining money under false pretenses. He gave bond for $1,000.

Selleck went to St. Louis about eighteen years ago. He attended the public schools and is well known by many people here. His father was a painter and paper hanger. He has a brother, Jerome Selleck, who went to St. Louis with him.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Sunday has the following about Selleck's arrest:

Circuit Attorney Harvey Saturday said the indictments on which Selleck was arrested were being prepared for formal presentation in court.

One of the indictments charges that Selleck obtained $4,000 in deed of trust notes from a client and agreed to erect a house as payment for the notes. It was stipulated that the house, when turned over to the client, should be free of incumbrance.

The indictment alleges that when the house was turned over to the client there were mechanics' liens against it, constituting an incumbrance, and that Selleck, in failing to satisfy these liens placed himself in the position of obtaining money by false pretenses.

In the other indictment it was charged that Selleck obtained $4,000 worth of stocks from a widow, in connection with probate court proceedings, and failed to make an accounting to his client.

An effort was made to disbar Selleck in 1912. After a commission appointed by the court of appeals had recommended that he be disbarred, the supreme court of Missouri set aside the commission's finding and ordered that Selleck be permitted to continue practicing law.

Selleck said the house mentioned in one of the indictments was built for Rudolph Kink and that it was necessary to leave it encumbered with mechanics' liens because the $4,000 deed of trust given by Link was not sufficient to pay for the work. He said that Link had lost nothing through the deal.

"William J. Hogan, president of the Great Western Construction Co., which built the house, left town two weeks ago and I do not know where he is," said Selleck. I am secretary of the construction company and in that capacity I signed the papers in the transaction with Link, but I did nothing wrong."

Selleck said he knew nothing of the transaction in which he is alleged to have obtained $4,000 worth of securities belonging to a widow.

TWO FOR COUNTY CLERK.

Frank Bolin and Fred Yeomans Are Candidates for This Office.

There are two candidates for the nomination for county clerk. Fred J. Yeomans filed for the office April 22 and Frank Bolin filed May 5.

Frank Bolin was born and reared in White Cloud township and is 42 years old. He has been a resident of Nodaway county all his life. He was the Democratic nominee for sheriff in 1904 and was defeated by a small majority. He was a candidate for the nomination for collector of Polk township and was defeated in the convention by Felix Grundy by a few votes. He urged his supporters to vote for Grundy and help elect him. This act is characteristic of his Democracy. Mr. Bolin stands foremost among our citizens. He came from a family of Democrats and would make a good race for the office he seeks. Should he be nominated and elected he would make a most efficient officer.

Runaway at Hopkins.

A team belonging to Mell Foster of Hopkins became frightened at an automobile this morning in Hopkins, while Ernest Foster, his mother and daughter were returning to their home, east of Hopkins. The team ran a short distance, overturning the buggy and throwing the occupants out. Mrs. Foster sustained a sprained wrist and an injured side, while the others were only slightly shaken up.

NO CHARGES AGAINST GUNN.

Prosecuting Attorney Says No Steps to Be Taken Until Investigation is Finished.

No charges have been preferred against Roy Gunn of Burlington Junction, who caused the death of L. W. Huddle in a fight last Sunday at Burlington Junction. Prosecuting Attorney Wright announced Friday that steps will be taken to bring charges against Gunn as soon as the investigation is finished. Mr. Wright, accompanied by Sheriff Ed Wallace, was in Burlington Junction Thursday gathering evidence in the case.

Noah Huddle, father of the dead man, and E. W. Williams of Shambaugh, Ia., and Frank McMackin of Burlington Junction were in Maryville Friday morning and were in conference with Mr. Wright.

Gunn is in the county jail and refuses to make any statement on the case.

PLAY TWO GAMES.

Tarkio College This Afternoon and Amity College Saturday.

The Normal school base ball team left this morning on a two days trip to Tarkio college and Amity college. The team will play Tarkio college today, and will try to avenge the defeat which they suffered at the hands of the Tarkio players a week ago. The team plays at Amity, Ia., on Saturday and are confident of bringing home another victory over the Amity college team. The men who made the trip were Leavel, Bird, McKee, Noblett, Dyer, Ham, Adams, Brittain, Miller, Richards and Long. Coach Eek accompanied the team. The Democrat-Forum will receive the results of both games immediately after the game and will be glad to answer all phone calls at the office.

First Band Concert of Season.

The first band concert of the season was given Thursday night by the Maryville Concert band. There was a large crowd of people present and they showed their appreciation of the fact that the concerts are to be given again this year by Director T. B. Maulding and the band. An excellent program of music was given, all of which was well rendered. The concerts will be given on every Thursday night in the band stand in the court house yard, the weather permitting.

Won Case at Gallatin.

The suit of John M. Dinsmore and Grover Dinsmore vs. G. W. Shell, which was sent from the Nodaway circuit court to the Davies county circuit court at Gallatin, terminated with a verdict for the plaintiffs. The suit was on a contract and was for $1,000, and the verdict was for the full amount. Wright & Ford were the attorneys for Dinsmore. Mr. Shell was represented by Boyce Miller of Grant City and J. L. Sheldon of Ottawa, Kan. G. W. Shell lives at Ottawa.

Barnard Citizen Routed Mexicans.

A gang of Mexicans who are temporarily located at Barnard, where they are employed by the Burlington railroad, were put to flight early Sunday night when Jim Wyatt opened fire on the foreigners at that place with a seven-shooter. The Mexicans were housed in their car when the shooting began, but ere the battle was over all had fled except one, who took refuge under his bunk. Seven shots were fired into the box car.

Just what prompted young Wyatt to open fire on the foreigners has not been learned, but it is thought that true Americanism begun to overflow when he caught sight of the nationality that is today causing Uncle Sam no end of trouble. Wyatt has been placed under arrest.

War on Berry Boxes.

A campaign against the use of berry boxes with false bottoms has been inaugurated by the state food and drug department. Announcement is made by John P. Leahy, attorney for the departments, and asks housewives throughout the state to help the officials apprehend peddlers and large dealers who persist in misrepresenting the quantity of berries by the use of short boxes.

Boxes with false bottoms, Mr. Leahy said, contain 20 per cent less than the outer appearance would indicate. According to Leahy, State Food Inspector Fricke has notified berry shippers throughout Missouri that prosecutions would follow attempts to sell berries in boxes with raised bottoms as containing full pints or quarts when in reality they contain less.

Mrs. J. H. Mounts of Chicago and Mrs. J. Louis Diss of Lincoln, Neb., arrived Thursday night and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stapler.

F. E. DAY'S ADDRESS

ATTENDED BY 175 MEN AT BROTHERHOOD MEETING.

TALK ON BROTHERHOOD

Object of Same is to Bring the Outcast and Down-Trodden to View the Church Correctly.

About 175 men attended the address given by the Rev. Frank E. Day of the White Temple of St. Joseph, at a meeting of the Brotherhood of the First M. E. church last night. Delegations of thirty-three of the M. E. church brotherhood at Pickering, two from Myrtle Tree and about thirty from the Buchanan Street Methodist church of this city, came en masse. The remainder of the audience was composed of the M. E. Brotherhood and a few from the Christian and Baptist churches of the city.

In his introductory remarks Rev. Day attributed the election of Mayor Marshall of St. Joseph to the influence of the various brotherhoods of that city. He incidentally remarked that if such organizations could have such influence in a city like St. Joseph, what untold good might they do in other towns and cities. This statement was humorously received and roundly applauded.

In taking up his talk of the evening he traced clearly and minutely the growth of the brotherhood in the church. He stated that the first Apostolic church was dominated by the Bass Voice, having reference to the affairs of the church being controlled by men. This domination gradually waned until the nineteenth century, when the Soprano Voice (women) was in the ascendency in the affairs of the church in every department except the official board, and even that body was seeking some way of shifting its responsibilities to the Ladies' Aid society. Such was the state of affairs in the history of the nineteenth century church that some of the sainted men were led to remark that the reason marriage was abolished in heaven was due to the fact that there would not be enough men to go around.

The Bass Voice element of the twentieth century is taking the place of the nineteenth century Soprano Voice, and the church is appealing to men of intelligence and influence, through the agency of the social element advocated by the present day brotherhood. These brotherhoods are essentially social in nature to be of the greatest opportunity; if they lack in the social nature and are of the prayer meeting type, they are a calamity. These brotherhoods are not a new organization, but an old organization with more power through a neglected source. The brotherhood should and is seeking a more manly relation between the man in the church and the man on the outside of the church. Its duty is to make the man on the one side understand that the man on the other side is the same sort of a human. The brotherhood is not seeking the particular individual but type of men, the man who feels that there is naught of good in the world, that the church is his enemy. What it must seek to do is to bring the outcast and down-trodden to view the church in the light of a brother and helper and direct the wanderer's step and gaze to Him who is Master of all.

About eighty-eight remained for the banquet, which was served in the parlors of the church. William Hall, president, and Callie C. Harmon, vice president of the Brotherhood at Pickering; Rev. W. E. Killion, pastor of the Christian church, and Rev. S. T. Stillman, pastor of the M. E. church, of Pickering, and Ernest Wray of Myrtle Tree gave short addresses. Rev. Gilbert S. Cox was toastmaster.

DOG ADOPTS WOLF CUBS.
Scotch Terrier Near Maryville Consents to Addition of Three Wild Animals to Family.

A Scotch terrier belonging to J. M. Vert of Wilcox has a family of four, three of which are gray wolf cubs. The wolves were found in a nest at the foot of a hollow tree when about two days old. Vert brought the cubs to the house and the friendship followed. The cubs are now about ten days old and are flourishing with the terrier pup.

Clean, Wholesome Milk.

In recent years many experiments have been made in trying to purify milk by straining it through cotton, quartz, sand and the like, in endeavoring to remove sediment and other objectionable matter. No method, process or machine had ever been discovered that would satisfactorily accomplish this result until the invention and perfection of the DeLaval centrifugal milk clarifier. The objection to many of the other processes is that they only tend to dissolve the impurities and emulsify them with the milk. The DeLaval process of milk clarification does not involve the heating of the milk, the use of chemicals or other outside agents. It is a scientific application of centrifugal force. The milk is run through a bowl which revolves at the rate of several thousand revolutions per minute, thus subjecting the milk to a high centrifugal force, and which high speed displaces and lodges in the sediment pockets provided for the purpose, all the sediment and contamination contained in the milk, which is heavier than the milk. The milk is discharged from the machine in identically the same state as which it entered, with no physical or chemical change whatever, except that it is freed from the objectionable matter and thus rendered clean and wholesome. Dr. Charles E. North of New York City, sanitary expert for the International Milk Dealers' association and recognized everywhere as a leading authority on clean milk, said, in a recent report: "The new centrifugal clarifier does not separate the cream from the milk. It takes out the slimes, and a study of the composition of that slime reveals new horrors, even in the best milk. You have not studied certified milk until you have examined the slime thrown out of even the best forms of certified milk by the clarifier. Those who doubt the benefit of clarification will be converted if they only examine the slimes that are taken out of even the best raw milk."

Want Sand and Gravel.

The Polk township board is looking for some good sand and gravel to be used in the township and county and in building the new bridges and culverts. FOR CHRONIC COUGHS Milton, Pa., Woman Has Found a Remedy.

Mrs. Howard Wagner of Milton, Pa., says: "I had a bad cold for months, and would cough every night until midnight. I consulted a doctor and took two kinds of medicine but got no relief. Vinol was recommended, and after taking it a week I could sleep all night without coughing once. I continued its use and now have a fine appetite, never felt better and my cough is entirely gone."

It is a well known fact that when a person is run down, stomach out of order, or the system overloaded with waste matter, vital resistance is lowered and colds and coughs are easily contracted.

The safest and surest method we know to overcome this condition is by taking our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. In the most natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, promotes a hearty appetite, enriches the blood, and as a specific for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles Vinol is unexcelled.

Try a bottle of Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to help you. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

Obituary.
Clara F. Jones was born in Waukesha county, Wisconsin, November 13, 1839. She was united in marriage to John A. Stewart November 8, 1866. Lived in Wisconsin until 1870, when they moved to Hopkins, where they lived until 1890, when they moved to Parnell, living there seventeen years, when again they went to make their home near her niece, Mrs. H. W. Hull. After two years she was deprived of her husband by the hand of death, and after this made her home with her niece, where she lived until she was called to her reward.

Her life was quiet and peaceful, filled with loving deeds quietly done. Wherever sickness was or need she was willing to assist, and her presence brought sunshine. She was one of the charter members of the Presbyterian church at Hopkins, where she remained a member until her death. Her faith in God was perfect and no work of the church was complete without her. Hers was an every-day Christian life, doing the work of the Master faithfully and trustfully.

She was sick about six weeks with a complication of diseases. She was able to be down but little during that time, resting as best she could in a chair. She was talking of her husband when the weakened heart suddenly stopped and the hand that had so gently led her along the path of life conducted her across the dark stream to which we could see she was going, leaving us standing so close to its flowing water.

A short service was conducted by Rev. Hale at the home of H. W. Hull Thursday morning. A quartet consisting of Mrs. Alpha Bishop, Miss Nellie Douglas, Orlo Quinn and Hal Catterson sang "It is Well With My Soul" and "Abide With Me," and a solo, "Shepherd Divine," was given by Mr. Catterson.

The remains were taken to her old home and church at Hopkins, where the funeral services were conducted by the pastor. Remarks were appropriately made by W. K. Adams, an intimate friend of the family from St. Joseph. Her body was laid to rest beside the family, a husband, who preceded her more than five years ago, and three children, who died in infancy. Many were the floral tributes and expressions of love from a host of friends who, in their hearts, chorus the admittance "Well done, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

The best acting cast ever seen in Maryville with Angell's Comedians, in the big tent, for one week, starting next Monday night. Don't miss it.

German Specialist Here.

Dr. Heinrich Holke, the German specialist, will be in Maryville for three months, during May, June and July. The doctor claims to have treated over six thousand cases in the last twenty-five years and to have extensive hospital experience. He speaks English, German, French and Italian.

George and Clarence Holbrook of Clearmont were transacting business in this city Wednesday.

Don't miss seeing the opening play of Angell's Comedians in the big tent next Monday night.

In Missouri.

Total value of Missouri farm crops for 1913 is $175,787,126. In this estimate only field crops and vegetables are included.

Missouri has become one of the greatest, perhaps the greatest, of blue-grass states. The annual grazing value of the crop has been estimated at from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000.

Missouri has a flag and it will wave over London, August 17, for that date has been set aside for Missouri day at the Anglo-American exposition, which will open shortly and continue until October.

Missouri counted its cash at the close of business April 30, and there was found to be $7,538,429.52 in the treasury. This was in excess of any balance ever held before to the extent of more than $269,000.

It is a safe prediction that Missouri will soon be at the head of agricultural states. According to the 1910 census returns it ranks sixth in the value of farm products and fifth in the value of all farm property.

Every state has its society of Washington at the national capital but the greatest of them all is that of Missouri. The annual picnic of the Missouri society of Washington will be held at Great Falls on the Potomac river on July 11.

Missouri's state university is growing old. The seventy-fifth anniversary of its founding will be celebrated on June 5. While it has been growing old it has also been growing better and is now acknowledged as one of the greatest educational institutions in the country.

The tale is well and wonderfully told in these few short sentences by W. L. Nelson, assistant secretary of the Missouri state board of agriculture: "Missouri is a state of wonderfully diversified crops. No other state grows so many crops so well. Nowhere are the returns from labor in agricultural pursuits more certain."

WILCOX ITEMS.

Mrs. S. A. Hefflin was called to Barnard Friday on account of the illness of her brother's little son.

Mrs. Ed Hartsough of St. Joseph is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hainline.

Rev. M. DeWitt filled his usual appointment at Wilcox Sunday.

Miss Dora Smith, who has been teaching school near Sheridan, is home for the summer vacation. She has been re-employed to teach the same school at a salary of $50 per month.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shell, Monday morning, a little daughter. Mrs. Shell was Miss Clara Kinney.

Miss Mae Davis has been re-employed to teach the Wilcox school for the coming year.

The many friends of little Nellie Hall will be glad to learn that she is recovering nicely from the serious operation she underwent some time ago at St. Francis hospital. If nothing more arises she will be brought to her home this week.

With tear bedimmed eye we read of the death of Miss Marcia Messenger. How sad to think that nevermore, when alighting from the train, will we see that accustomed face. We think it can truthfully be said that "None knew her but to love her," for no stranger could look into her face without feeling that she was their friend. We do not know or understand why she could not have been spared, but with an aching heart we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

Manning Store in Operation.

The Manning store at Skidmore, which was sold last Friday to the Wheeler-Motter Dry Goods company of St. Joseph, is now in charge of U. G. Haynes of St. Joseph. The store will be continued and restocked and brought up to date. Mr. Haynes is a practical and experienced business man, and says that Skidmore is a most desirable location for an up-to-date store of this kind.

To Serve Meals.

The ladies of Mt. Zion Baptist church will serve dinner and supper Saturday at the Borrusch building, on West Third street.

THE ANGELLS ARE HERE.

Angell's Comedians, the company that closed their tenting season here last fall and gave such universal satisfaction, will open their tenting season here in Maryville next Monday night in "Every Woman's Husband." This play is claimed by the manager to have never been seen before outside of $1.00 and $1.50 prices. The story of this play ran in the Saturday Evening Post a few months ago. The company this year is much stronger than last season, and Mr. Haderman, the manager, says they will present a line of plays that have never been seen before in this city at popular prices, and a cast that will surprise the show going public. The company have been rehearsing here for the past week. The music will be a big feature with this company same as in the past, and the public can be assured of hearing the late and popular music as well as the descriptive.

LOAD OF STRIKE BREAKERS HALTED

Twenty-Five Miners Imported into Zone Stopped by Troops.

Trinidad, Colo., May 15.—Twenty-five miners imported into the strike region by the Oakdale Coal company to work in the Oakdale mine, near Laveta, were stopped by United States regulars under Captain C. C. Smith. Five men were held by Captain Cushman at Primero, a Colorado Fuel and Iron company property, on the ground that they were employed by the company in violation of the order of Colonel James Lockett against the importation of strikebreakers. None of the men were arrested or deported. The two commanders received orders from military headquarters simply to prevent them from going to work in the mines.

The detention of the thirty miners, together with the notice sent out by Colonel Lockett earlier in the day, warning the coal companies against the importation of men, brought the employment of strikebreakers into first place among the problems connected with the strike.

Attorneys for the Oakdale company called up Colonel Lockett's headquarters and asked for an interview. They were told that they might plead their cause before Colonel Lockett today, but that the orders from the secretary of war were explicit against permitting strikebreakers to be imported.

The developments of the day caused the issuance of a statement of policy by the military authorities. Unless further orders are received from Washington the attitude of the army toward the employment of miners is summed up as follows:

Men brought into the district by the coal companies will not be allowed to work in the mines.

Men who come voluntarily seeking employment will be permitted to work.

At the same time the military authorities announced that picketing of railroad stations by strikers will not be tolerated.

MELLEN BARES
HAVEN METHOD

Gives Details of Deal in Taking
Over Subsidiaries.

HE SPEAKS WITH FRANKNESS.

Was Ready to Deal "With Devil or Anybody Else" in the Transaction. Tells How New Haven Stock Was Exchanged for Westchester Shares.

Washington, May 15.—Former President Charles S. Mellen of the New Haven road disclosed to the interstate commerce commission the financial methods of the New Haven in the acquisition of subsidiaries, particularly the New York, Westchester and Boston road.

Mr. Mellen's testimony had scarcely begun when an adjournment was taken until next Tuesday.

Mr. Mellen, with apparent frankness, told of his negotiations with former Police Inspector Thomas F. Byrnes of New York for the exchange of 8,000 New Haven shares for 24,000 shares of Westchester stock, because he thought that Byrnes had influence with people who "it was necessary to reach." Mr. Mellen bluntly said he would have been willing to deal with the "devil or anybody else" in the transaction.

In the course of the examination Mr. Folk asked:

"When you became president of the New Haven, what was the policy of the directors in obtaining securities of trolley roads and steamship companies?"

In Accord With Policy.

"They were getting control of such holdings. I was in accord with this policy."

Mr. Folk took up the acquisition of the Westchester road by the New Haven, and Mr. Mellen said: "As I recall the details, 8,000 shares of the New Haven were put in my hands in escrow to be exchanged for 24,000 shares of the Westchester stock as soon as matters in connection with the franchise of the Westchester road were settled."

The value at that time of the 8,000 shares of New Haven was $1,200,000.

"With whom did you deal in regard to the exchange of stock?" asked Mr. Folk.

"Former Police Inspector Thomas F. Byrnes."

"What was your idea in regard to Mr. Byrnes arranging all this?"

Had Suspicion.

Mr. Mellen said that power to grant the franchise of the Westchester road was in the hands of the board of estimates of New York city, and continued:

"When I was carrying on this transaction through Mr. Byrnes, I had a hunch he could reach people of influence in regard to having the changes made in the proposed charter. I wanted to reach the people it was necessary to reach. I wanted to reach the devil or anybody else who could amend the charter."

"Were the arrangements for the exchange of securities made in writing?"

"No, I was willing to sign an agreement, but the other party was not."

Asked as to the names that appeared on Westchester shares as holders of stock, Mr. Mellen said: "The shares apparently were made out in the names of clerks and others."

Mr. Mellen said he believed an "attempt was made to conceal the owners of the stock."

ANNA GOULD QUILTS FIGHT

Withdraws Opposition to Count Boni's Suit for Annulment of Marriage.

Paris, May 15.—The Duchess de Talleyrand, formerly Anna Gould of New York, announces that, having successfully defended the suit brought by creditors of her first husband, Count Boni de Castellane, for possession of her Paris house, and having refuted, through the medium of her Roman lawyer, the calumnies reported about her by the Castellane family and Count Boni's friends, she has decided to withdraw her opposition to the annulment of her first marriage.

"BALD JACK'S STORY

in Murder Plot.

New York, May 15.—"Bald Jack" Rose and his fellow conspirator, "Bridgie" Webber, occupied the witness stand during the forenoon session at the second trial of Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal. The state called Rose in direct examination reinforcing parts of his story that the defense had attacked. When he left the stand it was the general opinion that his narrative in the main had not been shaken.

Webber was then called by the prosecution to tell of the part he played in the murder plot and of the gathering of the four gunmen, now all dead, at his poker rooms.

BRISTOW AND ASHURST TILT
Arizona Senator Calls Kansas a Falsifier.

Washington, May 15.—Prairie dogs stirred up more trouble in the senate than tariff, currency, tolls or woman suffrage has done in the entire session. Before the flurry was over, one senator had denounced another as a "falsifier" and Democrats had been accused of converting the party's economy pledges into a satire.

It all came about by Senator Ashurst being absent from the senate when it agreed to a $125,000 item in the agricultural appropriation bill for investigating noxious farm animals. He asked for a reconsideration so he might insert a $5,000 increase for the investigation into the methods of exterminating the prairie dogs, which, he said, had uprooted whole townships in Arizona.

Senator Bristow remarked that an appropriation for the extermination of prairie dogs was the most assinine thing he had ever heard of, because every farmer knows how to get rid of them.

"I am not in favor of calling out the army and navy to exterminate the prairie dog," Senator Bristow said. "This thing looks to me like a strained effort to get an appropriation to give somebody some jobs."

"No one would make that statement whose brains were not at the base of his tongue instead of in his head," shouted Senator Ashurst, as he advanced across the chamber toward the Kansas senator. "Any senator who says I am seeking to get some jobs by this item state what is false and knows he is a falsifier."

The roll call on reconsideration cut short the debate. Reconsideration was defeated by a tie vote of 26 to 26, but the debate over the prairie dog was not over. Senator Reed took the floor to denounce the bill, declaring many items in it were utterly unjustifiable and that the talk of economy had been converted into a satire.
